The Boxer spirit seems to have been revived by the apparent procrastination of the powers, and the high officials here would not be surprised to receive tidings of further outrages against foreigners at any

A rebellion is threatened in Kwaisin. In this locality the Chinese regular troops have found themselves unable to maintain order and the revolutionary element, encouraged by the weakness of the Imperial forces, is likely to take the field at any

In the Canton district there has already been anti-Christian rioting and several of the missions have been destroyed by crowds of Boxers and Boxer sympathizers.

The general position of the foreigners in Southern China is unsafe and the feeling of alarm is spreading, for an outbreak is likely to come without warning.

A despatch from Shanghai, dated October 4, 11 p. m., says: "It is learned here that the Imperial offices of which Prince Tuan was recently deprived have been given to two Manchus. The tendency of recent appointments has been to promote liberal men, replacing the anti-foreign

The Pekin correspondent of the "Daily News" in a despatch, dated September 26, tells a peculiar incident of the German-Japanese expedition to Seiyung. The advance guard of the expedition saw a Boxer, who was partly concealed by a mound of earth, persistently waving a red flag. The fire of the troops was entrated on this spot, and presently the flag went down.

On arriving at the mound, the troops found the body of a Chinese boy. He was hardly ten years of age, was dressed in a new Boxer uniform, and wore a toy sword. He had fallen dead upon the flag which he had ceased to wave only with his last breath. The correspondent describes this as a "remarkable evidence of the shocking fanaticism of the Box-linister Wg and Other Chinese Min isters Unite in a Petition.

Minister Wu Ting-fang called at the tate Department today to give Secretary Hay some official information. It was to the effect that a petition had been sent to Emperor Kwang Hsu by the Chines ninisters in each of the foreign capitals asking their sovereign to return to Pekin at once that negotiations may begin uner a form of Government. The Empere s assured the protection of the United States and is guaranteed that he will no e molested or imprisoned.

It is thought that he will respond favor ably to the request and in the event of his eturn to the capital, it is thought that the gotiations will take place in Tientsin. The French note presented yesterday to the State Department has been transmitted to President McKinley, with suggestions by the Secretary of State as to the character of the American answer. Russia, through her Embassy here, has signified her acquiescence in the French proposals, and that fact will render necssary a response to both nations by this Government.

So far no intimation has been given by Government officials of dissatisfaction with any portion of the French programme, except that relating to the permanent prohibition of the importation of arms and ammunition into China.

WHY ALI FERROUH BEY LEFT. America Suggested His Recall to the Sultan. It now appears that the action of the Sultan of Turkey in deciding to withdraw Ali Ferrouh Bey, his minister here, was brought about by the request of the American Government. The persistent refusal of the Porte to pay the Armenian claims of $100,000 presented by this country has strained relations consider-

This Government has not sent a minis ter to Constantinople since the return of Oscar Straus, and it is reasonably certain that none will be sent, so long as the Sultan continues in his present position. It is understood that the American Charge to Turkey, Mr. Grisans of the Charge to Turkey and the Charge to Tur m, suggested to the Sultan the ad-

com, suggested to the Sultan the advisability of withdrawing Ali Ferrouh Bey pending a settlement of the question, and on that advice the Porte recently announced his purpose of recalling Ferrouh Bey.

Shekib Bey, who is now in Constantinople, will be sent here as Charge. His arrival, however, will be a matter of slight importance, as the State Department is having little dealings with the Turkish Legation. Had it not been for the Chinese embroglio the Government the Chinese embroglio the Government would have probably taken active measures to secure a settlement of the REPORT ON CAPE NOME.

Better Results From Creeks Than From the Beach.

Cabell Whitehead, Assayer of the Mint, who has been investigating conditions at Cape Nome, has reported by mail to Director Roberts of the Mint. He estimates that the beach has produced from $250,000 to $300,000, but has been twice combed over and is thoroughly worked out.

On the creeks better results have btained than from the beach. Anvil Creek has produced about $750,000. Dexter Creek Marshal Count von Waldersee will remain in Tientsin pending the completion of the railroad which the Germans are to assist in repairing.

General Botha Suffering From an Attack of Quinsy, and Viljoen Temporarily in Command-Reitz and His Three Sons Fighting in the Ranks-Mrs. Kruger Seriously Ill.

PRETORIA, Oct. 4-(5 p. m.).-Definite nformation has been received here to the effect that when President Kruger crossed the border into Portuguese territory, the leaders he left behind him held a meeting at Hectorspruit and resolved to take all the best mounted men and go north work around Pietersburg.

General Botha is not seriously ill. He is uffering from a mild attack of quinsy. Vilioen, the second in command, is temporarily the head of the Boers. State Secretary Reitz and his three sons are now fighting as burghers in Botha's All the Boer leaders recognize that the struggle is useless, but they are obsti-nately determined not to abandon it until they are compelled to. The poorly mounted burghers have been left behind to work their way to their homes or cross the Poruguese border.

General Botha's force of about 1,500 men has gone north.

LONDON, Oct. 5.-A Pretoria despatch to the "Daily Telegraph," says that Mrs. Carpenter are passengers, ran aground on Kruger, the wife of the President of the Tuesday at a point sixty miles from Bata. Transvaal, is so ill that the authorities have issued an order forbidding the drivers of vehicles to pass the house except at a walking gait.

General Roberts reports to the War Office, under date of Pretoria, October 4, that a force under General Clements had surprised a Boer convoy near Rustenburg, capturing twenty-nine wagons, some rifles and 10,000 rounds of ammunition. The only British casualty was one wounded.

General Roberts adds that the casualties at Dejagers Drift on October 1, were not as serious as at first reported, only seven having been wounded.

While nothing can be said as to what the basis of settlement will be, it is understood that, if the operators will agree to grant the increase of 10 per cent on a fixed basis, reduce the price of powder, and institute the semi-monthly pay system, the men will return to work Mean-while President Mitchell is simply waiting the outcome of the fight between the individual operators and the coal carrying companies. As a matter of fact, Mr. Mitchell cannot do anything until an offer emanating from all the coal carrying companies and operators is made to him

In the general strike situation in this region there were no notable changes this morning. There are about 1.500 men working out of the 18,000 usually laboring in and about the mines and the collieries are steadily losing. Outside of a little stonethrowing by women sympathizers at Latti-mer colliery this morning, there were no disturbances.

In the Lansford district the miners held a meeting last night to discuss the ques-tion of striking and voted unanimously to remain at work. The company has notified the men that it would settle any grievances they may have and give them any increase the strikers receive in case a settlement is made. On the other hand, the labor leaders say that the collieries in the Panther Creek Valley will soon be tied up.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.-Albert T. Patrick, counsel of the late William M. Rice, the multi-millionaire recluse, who was arrested last night on a charge of Mr. Rice's name to two checks for $55,000 and $65,000, respectively, was arraigned this morning in the police court. Charles F. Jones, Mr. Rice's secretary, accused of complicity with Attorney Pat-rick, was arraigned at the same time. The two men had spent the night at police headquarters.

Patrick was seen there early this morn ing by a reporter. He continued to as sert that his incarceration was an out rage and said:
"My attorney will see me early today.

Habeas corpus proceedings will be instituted at once and I will be out of this before sundown." The arrests are the outcome of the op-ening of Millionaire Rice's strong box in the vaults of the Safe Deposit Company of New York at 140 Broadway. This box contained securities and mortgages worth $1,000,000. Frederick B. House, counsel for Pat-rick, called on him this morning. Mr.

House said:
"Mr. Patrick will come out of this case all right. Despite the remarkable condi-tion of affairs everything that he did was open and above board. He has had noth-ing to conceal from the beginning and he is as hopeful now as he ever was."

Democratic Leader Greeted by an Immense Audience at Noblesville This Morning-Mayor of Indianapolis Predicts That He Will Carry Hoosier State-Plans for Tomorrow

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5 .- Mr. Bryan's ar left this city at 7 o'clock this mornng. On the train were nearly eighty Inliana Democrats who traveled in an extra oach and a few of them alighted at the various points along the line to deliver speeches.

At Noblesville, Ind., this morning, Mr. Bryan made an address to eight thousand enthusiastic people from a stand erected ear the railway track.

He declared he could think of no lower cale upon which to decide the questions at issue than mere money. He again said the Republicans only knew of the existence of the Ice Trust.

Two stalwart policemen were carried on the car today to keep the crowds off. Nothing so exhausts Mr. Bryan's strength as being pushed and jostled.

At Noblesville, Park Martin declared to the newspaper men his belief that Indiana s safe for Bryan by a flattering plurality. Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, declared that Bryan's plurality in the Hoosier State this time would be between 15,000 and 20,-

At Lebanon last night Mr. Bryan made the longest speech of the campaign. He talked to an enthusiastic and appreciative udience for an hour and thirty minutes. Mr. Bryan's tour through Indiana will last two days. The itinerary for today will
